

AURORA

Eros & Psykhe

As sacred dusk descends in precious colors on repeat
Consumed by veils of silence
Still dreaming underneath... we are Branching into parallel, a never ending stream
Of everything that could be
And all the in-between... realities

Can you see the starry night?
Can you see creations might — In the distance
Shining brightly...?
And Orpheus in hymn
sings the butterfly within
To Love again,
My dearest Psykhe...

So, Don't close your eyes
This kiss means everything
Don't close your eyes
As I fall in love with you
Don't close your eyes
You might miss everything
Don't close your eyes
See my Aurora
Where the arrow pierced my heart

Riding the quantum interface above the god machine
The souls immortal sentience
Is unobserved and free...
Unseen in evolution is the eminence above
But as you know the one thing—
The one thing... is always love

Can you see the starry night?
Can you see Aurora's light — In the distance
Shining brightly...?
And Orpheus in hymn
calls the Angel born within
To Love again,
My dearest Psykhe...

So, Don't close your eyes
This kiss means everything

Don't close your eyes
As I fall in love with you
Don't close your eyes
You might miss everything
Don't close your eyes
See my Aurora
Where the arrow pierced my Heart

The Soul that's left in Isolation
Will Undergo this transformation
Taking flight in metamorphosis
You and I will be... Together
(I FALL IN LOVE WITH YOU)

So, Don't close your eyes
This kiss means everything
Don't close your eyes
As I fall in love with you
Don't close your eyes
You might miss everything
Don't close your eyes
See my Aurora

So, Don't close your eyes
This kiss means everything
Don't close your eyes
As I fall in love with you
Don't close your eyes
You might miss everything
Don't close your eyes
See my Aurora
Where the arrow pierced my heart
